

AMETEK Elects George Ardolino as Vice President and General Manager, Power Systems and Instruments

February 13, 2017

BERWYN, Pa., Feb. 13, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- AMETEK, Inc. (NYSE: AME) today announced that the Board of Directors has elected George Ardolino as Vice President and General Manager, Power Systems and Instruments Division (PSID).

"George's promotion to Vice President and General manager is a testament to his strong leadership," comments David A. Zapico, AMETEK Chief Executive Officer. "George has done an outstanding job driving the company's expansion both organically and through impactful acquisitions within his business unit. In his new position, we expect him to help accelerate growth and execute operational excellence for our Power division."

Mr. Ardolino has held various entrepreneurial, business development and senior management roles within the industrial space for more than 40 years. Following college, he was involved with a start-up called Engineered Services that designed and manufactured power conversion products. Prior to his role with AMETEK, Mr. Ardolino held senior leadership positions at Marmon, ITT Corporation and General Signal Company.

Mr. Ardolino attended St. Elizabeth's College with a concentration in Business Management.
