Purchase Terms & Conditions

1. ACCEPTANCE OF ENGAGEMENT Buyer offers to purchase the products ("Products") and/or services ("Services") described in that certain documentation supplied by Buyer attached hereto or that otherwise incorporates these terms and conditions by reference, providing the description, quantity, specifications, and other details required by Buyer related to the Products and Services (each an "Engagement"). Each Engagement (and each purchase order, release, or other similar ordering document issued thereunder or in connection therewith) shall be deemed accepted and shall become a binding contract on the terms and conditions contained herein when (a) signed and returned by Seller, (b) Seller issues its oral or written acknowledgment, or (c) Seller commences performance. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Engagements (and each purchase order, release, or other similar ordering document issued thereunder or in connection therewith) will become automatically binding on Seller unless Seller rejects such Engagement in writing within five (5) days of receipt of the applicable documentation describing the Engagement (or purchase order, release, or other ordering documentation, as applicable). Seller waives all terms and conditions contained in its quotation, acknowledgment, invoice or other documents which are different from, inconsistent with or additional to those contained herein or the Engagement (or a purchase order, release or other similar ordering document issued thereunder or in connection therewith), and all such different or additional terms and conditions shall be null and void, are expressly rejected by Buyer, and shall not be considered within the scope of the Engagement.

2. SHIPPING INSTRUCTIONS No charges shall be allowed for packing, crating, freight and/or any other shipping services (including without limitation, freight insurance) unless so specified in the Engagement. Seller shall comply with Buyer's shipping instructions. All Products must be (i) suitably packed or otherwise prepared by Seller for shipment to prevent damage and to meet the carrier's requirements, and (ii) shipped in accordance with industry standard shipping practices (unless otherwise specified in the Engagement). Expenses incurred due to failure to comply with these terms are the responsibility of Seller. If the Engagement provides a specific order number such order number(s) shall appear on all correspondence, shipping labels and shipping documents, including all packing slips, bills of lading, air bills and invoices. All packing slips shall include Buyer's part number, where applicable, description, quantity, and a statement as to whether the Engagement is partially or completely completed.

3. DELIVERY-NOTICE OF DELAY

(a) Time is of the essence in fulfilling the Engagement, and every portion thereof (including, without limitation, any milestones or similar required dates of performance or delivery). Failure to deliver in accordance with the delivery and performance schedule under the Engagement, if not excused with Buyer's express written consent, shall be a material breach. Buyer reserves the right to refuse or return at Seller's risk and expense shipments made in excess of the quantities specified in the Engagement or in advance of required schedules, or to defer payment on advance deliveries until scheduled delivery dates.

(b) Unless otherwise stipulated in a particular Engagement, Products shall be shipped DDP to the designated delivery place provided by Buyer. Risk of loss shall pass to Buyer upon delivery of the Products to Buyer's designated location. Title to Products shall transfer to Buyer upon Buyer's receipt of such Products.

(c) Seller shall notify Buyer in writing immediately of any actual or potential delay in the performance of any Engagement (or any portion thereof).

(d) If Seller is unable or fails to deliver or perform as scheduled, Buyer may "cover" by making, in good faith and without unreasonable delay, any reasonable purchase of or contract to purchase goods or services in substitution for those due from Seller under the delayed or breached Engagement. Buyer shall recover from Seller as damages the difference between the cost of cover and the price for such goods or services under the applicable Engagement. In addition to the foregoing sentence, and any rights Buyer may have in law or in equity, Buyer may cancel any Engagement (or any portion thereof) if delivery is not made on time or if notice is given that a delivery is expected to be late, and such cancellation shall be a termination for default governed by Section 5 hereof.

4. TERMINATION FOR CONVENIENCE Buyer may by notice in writing to Seller terminate any Engagement in whole or in part, and/or any portions of work under the Engagement, for convenience and without cause and without incurring any liability to Seller other than for actual costs directly incurred by Seller to procure or fulfill the terminated Engagement (or portion thereof) prior to Buyer providing the termination notice (which costs must be shown via documentary evidence acceptable to Buyer). Such termination shall not constitute default. In the event of partial termination, Seller shall not be excused from performance of the non-terminated balance of the Products or Services. Regardless of the reason for termination, Seller shall immediately cease all work under a terminated Engagement (or, in the case of partial termination, the terminated portion thereof) upon receipt of written notice from Buyer providing for termination, and shall use all efforts to mitigate any amounts that may be owed by Buyer to Seller related thereto, and the Buyer will only be liable for any such amounts that are not subject to a genuine bona fide dispute and were incurred prior to the date of termination.

5. TERMINATION FOR DEFAULT Buyer may by notice in writing to Seller terminate any or every Engagement and any underlying document or agreement related thereto, in whole or in part, at any time if Seller fails (a) to perform within the time specified herein or any extension thereof; or (b) to perform any of the other provisions of any Engagement or to adhere to any provision of these terms and conditions, or (c) in Buyer's reasonable judgment, to make progress as to endanger performance of any Engagement, and in the case of subsection(c) hereof, does not cure such failure within a period of ten (10) days from its receipt of Buyer's written notice thereof (provided that any termination shall be effective immediately if (i) the default is as set forth in subsections (a) or (b) above, or otherwise cannot be cured or (ii) Buyer has previously notified Seller of the same or similar default). Upon termination, Buyer may procure, as it deems appropriate, products or services similar to those that were to be provided under the terminated Engagement(s), and Seller shall be liable to Buyer for the cost of such products or services. Seller may terminate an Engagement for Buyer's default if Seller notifies Buyer of such default and (i) if the default is due to Buyer's failure to timely make payment, such default is not cured within thirty (30) days of Buyer's receipt of such notice from Seller or (ii) if the default is due to any other reason, such default is not cured within ten (10) days of Buyer's receipt of such notice from Seller. Any such termination by Seller shall be limited to the Engagement(s) (or portion thereof) directly in default. Upon the termination of an Engagement for any reason, each party will be released from all obligations to the other arising under such Engagement(s) after the date of termination, except for those which by their terms survive such termination (which for the avoidance of doubt, shall include any replacement costs or other damages incurred by Buyer in accordance with this Section 5). Upon termination of any Engagement, in whole or in part, by Buyer for any reason, Seller shall immediately stop all terminated work under the terminated Engagement.

6. FORCE MAJEURE Neither party shall be liable for any failure to perform under an Engagement where such failure to perform is caused by the following circumstances beyond its control (provided that such party uses its best efforts to mitigate such failure to perform and seek alternative arrangements to fulfill its obligations under the Engagement(s)): acts of God fire, flood, acts of war, terrorism, or other natural disasters (each a "Force Majeure Event"). Neither party shall be entitled to terminate an Engagement due to a Force Majeure Event, provided that if Seller experiences a Force Majeure Event causing a delay of delivery of Product or performance of Service of more than thirty (30) days, Buyer may terminate such Engagement without liability.

7. PROPRIETARY RIGHTS

(a) Seller shall keep confidential any technical, process, economic or other proprietary information derived from or obtained in connection with Seller's performance under an Engagement or otherwise furnished to Seller (including without limitation, any such information contained in any drawings, specifications, software or other data) (collectively, "Confidential Information"). Seller shall not divulge, export or use, directly or indirectly, any such Confidential Information other than for Seller's approved performance under applicable Engagements, without obtaining Buyer's express prior written consent. All such Confidential Information shall be promptly returned to Buyer on request. The protections set forth herein are in addition to those that may be agreed between Buyer and Seller (or their affiliates) in a non-disclosure or similar agreement.

(b) Any intellectual property first made or conceived by Seller in performance of any Engagement that was (i) made or conceived in connection with Products or Services created specifically for Buyer or pursuant to Buyer's unique specifications or (ii) derived from or based on the use of or that otherwise incorporates information supplied by Buyer, shall be considered to be the property of Buyer, and Seller shall execute such documents necessary to perfect Buyer's title thereto (such intellectual property being referred to herein as "Work Product"). Seller shall not otherwise make use of any Work Product (including, but not limited to, drawings, designs, computer software and all copyright, patent, trade secret, and trademark rights, and any other forms of intellectual property protection which may be available), and title in such Work Product shall belong to Buyer. Seller may not sell Products to other customers of Seller if such Products incorporate Work Product, without Buyer's prior written approval. All Work Product created during the course of providing the Products or Services that is copyrightable subject matter is agreed to be owned by the Buyer, and the Seller will take any such steps as needed to effect this assignment to the Buyer, and such copyrights are therefore owned by Buyer. To the extent that the foregoing does not apply, Seller hereby irrevocably assigns to Buyer for no additional consideration, Seller's entire right, title, and interest in and to all Work Product, including the right to sue, counterclaim, and recover for all past, present, and future infringement, misappropriation, or dilution thereof, and all rights corresponding thereto throughout the world. If any Product sold hereunder incorporates or embeds software or firmware that is not Work Product, Seller grants to Buyer a perpetual, non-exclusive, non-revocable, worldwide fully paid-up license, to use any such software and/or firmware embedded in connection with Buyer's use and ownership of the Product.

8. BUYER'S PROPERTY All drawings, tools, jigs, dies, fixtures, products, and other items supplied or paid for by Buyer shall be and remain the property of Buyer ("Buyer's Property"), and Buyer shall have the right to enter Seller's premises and remove Buyer's Property upon reasonable notice to Seller. Buyer's Property shall be used by Seller only in its performance of the Engagements. Seller shall maintain Buyer's Property using a standard of care that meets or exceeds the standard of care used by Seller to maintain its own property and Seller shall be responsible for all loss or damage thereto, except for normal wear and tear. Seller shall properly mark any Buyer Property as Buyer's Property upon receipt and shall, upon written request provide a list of all Buyer Property (i) in Seller's possession and/or (ii) needed for a particular Engagement. All Buyer Property shall be returned to Buyer at Seller's cost, upon the termination or completion of all Engagements.

9. WARRANTIES

(a) Warranties. Seller represents and warrants the following:

(i) it is not contractually prohibited from engaging in the Services or providing the Products, and it is not a party to any agreement or under any obligation which conflicts with any Engagement or these terms and conditions which prohibits Seller from carrying out its responsibilities hereunder and thereunder;

(ii) it holds all necessary licenses and permits required by applicable governmental authorities to perform under the Engagements (and all such licenses and permits are in full force and effect);

(iii) the Services and all Products, and Seller's performance under all Engagements, will comply with all applicable laws;

(iv) the Products and Services are free of any third-party claim, including but not limited to any claims that the Products or Services, or the use thereof, will in any way infringe or contribute to the infringement of any intellectual property right in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and no claim, action or suit alleging any such infringement or contribution to infringement is pending or threatened against Seller, its affiliates or their employees, agents, suppliers or contractors;

(v) all Products, including all parts thereof, will, be new, merchantable, free from all defects in design, material and workmanship, fit for their intended purpose, and provided in strict accordance with the specifications, samples, drawings, designs or other requirements (including performance specifications) approved by Buyer in writing;

(vi) as to Services, Seller possesses the requisite expertise, facilities, and equipment necessary and appropriate to perform the Services, and all Services will be performed in accordance with the standards of care and diligence normally practiced by persons performing similar services and in the best workmanlike manner.

(b) Warranty Duration. The warranties contained in Section 9(a) (the "Warranties") will be in effect for thirty-six (36) months from the date of receipt by Buyer for all Products or the date of Seller's performance of the applicable Services (as applicable, the "Warranty Period"). Any replacement Products and Services will also be subject to the Warranties and Warranty Period. The Warranty Period for repaired Products and re-performed Services will be extended to account for the time lapsed until the repair or re-performance was completed. With respect to all Products provided, Seller shall make spare parts related to such Products available to Buyer for a period of five (5) years from the date of shipment of the Products to Buyer at the following price: (i) for Products still in production, Seller's then-current price for such parts or (ii) for Products discontinued or put out of production, the price of such parts at the time of such discontinuation.

(c) Warranty Details. All Warranties shall be for the benefit of Buyer, its successors, assigns, customers and the ultimate users of the Products and Services. Buyer's test, inspection, acceptance, payment for or use of the Products or Services shall not affect Seller's obligations under these warranties.

(d) Remedies. If any Products or Services fail to conform to the Warranties, Seller shall, at Buyer's sole option: (i) with respect to Products, replace or repair any defects, and (ii) with respect to Services, re-perform all such nonconforming Services, in each case at Seller's sole cost. If Seller fails to correct or replace such defects (at Buyer's option) within ten (10) days from the date the Buyer notifies Seller of the defect, Buyer may, in addition to any other remedies available at law or in equity, either (y) make such corrections or replace such Products and Services and charge Seller with all costs incurred with respect thereto, or (z) revoke its acceptance of the Products or Services in which event Seller shall be obligated to refund the purchase and make all necessary arrangements, at Seller's cost, for return of the Products to Seller. Seller shall compensate Buyer for any related costs incurred by Buyer in connection with Seller's failure to remedy a breach of warranty in conformance with this Section 9(d).

10. PRODUCT RECALLS If at any time Buyer conducts a product safety recall or a field fix program or Buyer, in Buyer's sole discretion, otherwise undertakes a recall related to Products provided by Seller hereunder (each a "Field Recall"), Buyer will notify Seller within thirty (30) days of the initiation of the Field Recall. If Seller receives a question, comment, or request for information from any regulatory agency or customer pertaining to (a) the legality and safety of the Products or (b) the components or production of the Products, Seller shall promptly provide a copy of such question, comment, or request to Buyer. Seller shall respond to such inquiry within five (5) days, after consultation with Buyer, in Buyer's discretion. Seller shall provide to Buyer all necessary information in its possession arising out of a government investigation or inquiry, recall, corrective action program, or similar program. If Buyer or any government agency determines that any Products sold to Buyer should be recalled (a "Government Recall" and together with Field Recalls, a "Recall"), Buyer may initiate any such Government Recall or direct Seller to do so on Buyer's behalf. In such event, Seller shall, at its sole cost and expense, take all actions necessary and appropriate to implement the Government Recall on a timely basis (provided that Buyer may, in its sole discretion, be entitled to notify its consumers or end users). Seller shall be responsible for all costs arising out of any Recall, including all costs and expenses associated with determining whether a Recall campaign is necessary. Without prejudice to Buyer's other rights (including rights at law or in equity), Seller shall, at its sole cost and in Buyer's sole discretion, either repair or replace the recalled Products, or credit or refund amounts paid by Buyer to Seller for all returned or destroyed Products in connection with such Recall.

11. INSPECTION All Products and Services and any documentation or material provided in connection therewith shall be subject to inspection (e.g., right of access) and test at all reasonable times and places by Buyer, and Buyer's customers before, during and after performance and/or delivery. If any inspection or test is made on the premises of Seller or any of its suppliers, Seller, without additional charge, shall provide all reasonable facilities and assistance for the safety and convenience of the inspectors in the performance of their duties. Buyer reserves the right to use rejected materials, as it believes advisable or necessary to meet its contractual obligations to customers, without waiving any rights against Seller.

12. REJECTIONS If any of the Products or Services shall be found at any time to be defective in material or workmanship, in violation of the Warranties, or otherwise not in strict conformity with the requirements of an Engagement or these terms and conditions, Buyer, in addition to such other rights, remedies and choices as it may have by contract or by law, at its option and sole discretion, may (a) reject such Products and/or Services and, in the case of Products, return such Products to Seller at Seller's expense; and/or (b) require Seller to replace nonconforming Products and Services with conforming Products and Services. If Buyer shall elect option (b) above and Seller shall fail to promptly make the necessary inspection, removal and replacement or reperformance, as applicable, Buyer may, at its option, and without effect of other rights and remedies available to Buyer, rework the nonconforming Products and/or Services and charge back Seller for the required work. Buyer reserves the right to use rejected materials, as it believes advisable or necessary to meet its contractual obligations to customers, without waiving any rights against Seller. In the event any Products or Services are rejected by Buyer, Seller shall pay to Buyer: (i) with respect to rejected Products, the cost incurred by Buyer for storing the rejected Products; and (ii) with respect to Products and/or Services, all other expenses incurred by Buyer in connection therewith. Buyer's acceptance of any non-conforming delivery of Products or performance of Services shall not constitute a waiver of its right to reject future deliveries or performances or a waiver of any claim which Buyer may have regarding Products or Services.

13. CHANGES Buyer shall have the right upon notifying Seller to suspend or make changes from time to time in an Engagement (and any purchase order, release or other similar ordering document issued thereunder or in connection therewith), including without limitation in the scope, specifications, or quantity of Products or Services or to change the delivery date. If any such change affects the cost of such Products or Services, an equitable adjustment may be made upon written agreement by Buyer and Seller, but any claim by Seller for adjustment shall be asserted within thirty (30) days from its receipt of the notice. Any changes to the terms of an Engagement must be approved in writing by Buyer before the Seller implements any such change. Should Seller change the Products or Services without prior written approval from Buyer, without waiving any other rights against Seller, Buyer shall not be liable for charges related to such changes.

14. PAYMENT; TAXES As full consideration for the Products and Services, and the assignment of rights to Buyer as provided herein, Buyer shall pay Seller (a) the amount agreed upon and specified in the Engagement, or (b) Seller's quoted price on date of shipment (for Products), or the date Services were started (for Services), whichever is lower. Such prices are firm and not subject to increase for any reason. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event will the price charged by Seller under any Engagement be less favorable than the lowest price charged by Seller to other customers purchasing similar or lesser quantities of the Products (or products similar to the Products) or Services (or services similar to the Services), and that any price reduction extended to others by Seller prior to delivery of the Products or performance of Services shall also be extended to Buyer. Payment shall not constitute acceptance. Each invoice submitted by Seller shall be provided to Buyer within thirty (30) days of completion of the Services or delivery of Products and shall reference the Engagement. Buyer reserves the right to return all incorrect invoices. Buyer shall receive a 2% discount of the invoiced amount for all invoices that are submitted more than thirty (30) days after completion of the Services or delivery of the Products. Buyer shall pay the undisputed invoiced amount within sixty (60) days after receipt of a correct invoice, which may be made (and must be accepted by Seller, if so elected by Buyer) via electronic fund transfer. Prices shall include, and Seller shall be liable for and pay, all taxes, duties, or tariffs imposed on or measured by each Engagement. Seller shall bear sole responsibility for any tariffs, duties, taxes, import/export fees and other governmental charges and assessments (collectively "Tariffs") that may be imposed, modified, increased or newly enacted by any governmental authority, at any time before, during or after the performance of this Agreement. This includes, but is not limited to, Tariffs applicable to the Products and/or Services, components, raw materials and any other items required for performance hereunder. Seller expressly acknowledges and agrees that it shall not pass through, charge or otherwise seek reimbursement from Buyer for any Tariffs and any attempt to do so will constitute a breach hereof. It shall be Seller's sole responsibility to comply with all applicable laws, regulations and government-imposed requirements related to Tariffs and Seller shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless Buyer, its affiliates, officers, directors, employees and agents from any losses, liabilities, damages, costs and expenses (including attorney's fees) arising from or relating to Seller's failure to comply with such laws, regulations or government-imposed requirements related to Tariffs. The Seller's obligations with respect to Tariffs shall survive expiration or termination of this Agreement, regardless of reason for termination. Prices shall not include any taxes for which Buyer has furnished evidence of exemption. Where required by law, Buyer may deduct from any payments due to Seller hereunder such taxes as Buyer shall be required to withhold and pay such taxes to the relevant tax authorities. To the extent that Buyer disputes any amounts set forth in an invoice, Seller shall continue to perform its obligations under the Engagement notwithstanding any such dispute. In the event Buyer receives a quotation from a third party for the Products or Services at a price that is lower than the price to be charged by Seller for such Products and Services and Buyer provides Seller evidence of such quote, Seller shall match such third-party pricing. If Seller fails to meet the third-party pricing, Buyer may terminate all Engagements without liability.

15. ASSIGNMENT Seller shall not and shall cause its affiliates not to, directly, indirectly, voluntarily or involuntarily, in each case, whether by transfer, operation of law, assignment or Change of Control (as defined below), assign or transfer any of its rights or interest or delegate any of its obligations hereunder or under any Engagement (each, an "Assignment"), without Buyer's prior written consent. No purported Assignment, with or without Buyer's consent, shall relieve Seller of any of its obligations or prejudice any rights or claims that Buyer may have against Seller. Without effect on the foregoing, Seller shall be responsible for the actions and failure to act of all parties retained by, through, or under Seller in connection with the performance of each Engagement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Change of Control" means the occurrence of any of the following: (i) the direct or indirect sale or exchange in a single or series of related transactions by the stockholders of Seller of more than fifty percent (50%) of the voting stock of the Seller; (ii) a merger or consolidation in which the Seller is a party; (iii) the sale, exchange, or transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Seller; or (iv) a liquidation or dissolution of the Seller.

16. SET-OFF Buyer shall, upon written notice to Seller, be entitled at all times to set off any amount owing from Seller to Buyer or any of its affiliated companies against any amount payable by Buyer.

17. INDEMNITY AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

(a) Seller shall, without limitation, indemnify, defend and save Buyer, its affiliates, subsidiaries and its and their customers, and respective officers, directors, employees and agents ("Indemnitees") harmless from and against all claims demands, litigation, or proceedings of whatever kind, and resulting costs, expenses and liability (including attorney's fees), which arise from (i) claimed or actual infringement or violation of any intellectual property right in connection with the sale, manufacturer, distribution, or use of the Products or Services (which shall include, without limitation Seller's sale, manufacture, distribution or use of Products that violate Open Source Licenses (as hereinafter defined) or other applicable software licenses) (ii) personal injury, death, or property loss or damage attributed to, in connection with or caused by, the Products or Services, (iii) all Recalls; and (iv) any breach by Seller of its obligations under these terms and conditions or an applicable Engagement. With respect to any claim subject to this Section 17, Seller may not settle any such claim without Buyer's prior written consent. Nothing herein will restrict the right of Buyer to participate in the defense of an indemnification claim through its own counsel, at its own expense.

(b) Should Buyer's use, or use by its customers, of any Products or Services be enjoined, be threatened by injunction, or be the subject of any legal proceeding, Seller shall, at its sole cost and expense, and at Buyer's option (i) substitute fully equivalent non-infringing products or services, (ii) modify the Products or Services so that they no longer infringe but remain fully equivalent in functionality, (iii) obtain for Buyer and its customers the right to continue using the Products or Services, or (iv) if none of the foregoing is possible, refund all amounts paid or incurred by Buyer for the infringing Products or Services.

(c) If either party becomes aware of any matter that might give rise to a claim under this Section 17, the party discovering such shall notify the other party as soon as possible, giving in so far as is possible details of the claim, and consult with the other party (in so far as it is legally possible to do so). Each party will take reasonable steps to not incur any unreasonable costs, in the event of a claim and take reasonable steps to mitigate.

(d) In no event shall either party be liable to any party under or in connection with this Agreement or in any circumstance (and whether for breach of contract, under an indemnity, in tort (including negligence), for breach of statutory duty, misrepresentation), or otherwise for any indirect, special or consequential loss or Losses

(including loss of profit and loss of goodwill) and any such liability shall hereby be excluded to the greatest extent permitted by Applicable Law.

(e) Notwithstanding section 17(d), costs incurred by the Buyer in procuring an alternative Seller in the event of Seller's material breach of this Agreement and subsequent termination, or any Fines incurred by a party due to the other party's act or omission shall be considered direct, claimable Losses.

(f) Nothing in this Agreement will operate to exclude or restrict either Party's liability to the other Party, for:

- i. any matter for which it is not permitted by Applicable Law to exclude or limit, or to attempt to exclude or limit;
- ii. its liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence;
- iii. the indemnity from the Seller in section 17(a);
- iv. any fraudulent act or fraudulent omission or any fraudulent misrepresentation of either party or its wilful misconduct or wilful default.

(g) With the exception of section 17(d) above, the liability of the Seller to the Buyer in respect of any breach, cause or action, regardless of form, shall be limited to direct damages in an amount which is the higher of: i) an amount not to exceed two hundred and fifty percent (250%) of the fees paid or payable by the Buyer under this Agreement including all relevant Engagements under this Agreement; or ii) a de minimis amount of [£1,000,000 (one million pounds sterling)].

(h) With the exception of section 17(d) above, the liability of the Buyer to the Seller in respect of any breach, cause or action, regardless of form, shall be limited to direct damages in an amount not to exceed the total amount paid or payable by the Buyer to the Seller for the Products and/or Services under the relevant Engagement for which the cause of action arose.

(i) Nothing in this section 17 will prevent or restrict the right of a party to seek injunctive relief or specific performance.

(j) For the purposes of this section, these terms have the following meaning:

"Fines" means a fine that a party has suffered solely and directly due to the other party's act or omission, or other breach of this Agreement, provided that the party has reasonably attempted to mitigate such fine, and the fine has been properly issued pursuant to a ruling by the relevant authority, in accordance with applicable regulations, and any commercially reasonable avenue of challenge or appeal has been exercised;

"Losses" means any liabilities, claims, demands, suits, judgments or causes of action, damages, injury, reasonable and demonstrable costs, reasonable and demonstrable expenses (including reasonable and demonstrable legal fees), and/or Fines paid by a party.

18. INSOLVENCY If Seller ceases to conduct its operations in the normal course of business, including inability to meet its obligations as they mature, or if any proceeding under the bankruptcy or insolvency laws is brought by or against Seller, or a receiver for Seller is appointed or applied for, or an assignment for the benefit of creditors is made by Seller, all Engagements shall automatically terminate without liability to Buyer, except for liability for: (i) Services already performed in accordance with these terms and conditions and the applicable Engagement and (ii) Product deliveries previously made to Buyer or for Products that are completed at termination and subsequently delivered to Buyer in accordance with these terms and conditions.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT These terms and conditions, together with all Engagements (and purchase orders, releases, or other similar documents issues thereunder or in connection therewith), are intended by the parties as a complete and exclusive statement of the terms of their agreement. No course of prior dealings between the parties, no usage of the trade, and no prior or contemporaneous agreement, representation or understanding, oral or written, shall be relevant to determine the meaning of this agreement even though the accepting or acquiescing party has knowledge and opportunity for objection.

20. WAIVER The failure of Buyer to enforce at any time or, for any period of time, any of the provisions hereof shall not be construed to be a waiver of such provisions, nor the right of Buyer thereafter to enforce each and every such provision.

21. EXPORT/IMPORT CONTROL

(a) If Seller is a U.S. company that engages in the business of either manufacturing or exporting defense articles or furnishing defense services, Seller hereby certifies that it has and is currently registered with the U.S. Department of State Directorate of Defense Trade Controls (“DDTC”) and understands its obligations to comply with International Traffic In Arms Regulations (“ITAR”).

(b) If relevant to the provision of Products and Services under an Engagement, Seller shall advise Buyer as to the defense article status of the Products and Services and mark any technical data provided to Buyer in connection with the Products or Services to indicate if it is subject to ITAR controls. If any of the Products, Services or technical data in connection therewith are subject to ITAR, Buyer may need to obtain an import license from DDTC, and in such instance, upon instruction from Buyer, Seller shall, at no expense to Buyer, delay delivery of the Products and technical data until Buyer shall receive any necessary import license.

(c) The Seller shall retain responsibility for its (and any of its affiliates and / or sub-contractors) compliance with all Applicable Export Control or Economic Sanctions Laws relating to its respective business, facilities, and the provision of services to third parties including but not limited to the Buyer.

The Seller shall refrain from being directly or indirectly involved in the provision of goods, software, services and/or technical data that may be prohibited by Applicable Export Control or Economic Sanctions Laws.

(d) Seller shall immediately notify Buyer in writing if it is or becomes listed on a Debarred, Excluded or Denied Party List of an agency of the U.S. Government, or if its export privileges are denied, suspended or revoked.

(e) For the purposes of this section 21, “Applicable Export Control or Economic Sanctions Laws” means any laws, regulations, or other requirements of the governments of the United States or the United Kingdom concerning the importation, exportation, re-exportation, or deemed exportation of products, software, technical data, technology, or services, or any economic sanctions targeting countries (including Cuba, Iran, Sudan, Syria and North Korea) or persons, including the Export Administration Act (50 U.S.C. App. §§2401-2420), the Export Administration Regulations (15 C.F.R. §730 et seq.), the Office of Foreign Assets Control Regulations (31 C.F.R. Chapter V), the customs laws of the United States (19 U.S.C. §1 et seq.), regulations of U.S. Customs and Border Protection (19 C.F.R. Chapter I) and any other export control or economic regulations issued by the agencies listed in Part 730 of the Export Administration Regulations.

22. IMPORTER OF RECORD; ULTIMATE CONSIGNEE

Buyer shall not be a party to the importation of the Products or Services related to the transaction(s) represented by any Engagement and Buyer shall not in any event be designated as “importer of record” or “ultimate consignee” on any customs declaration or customs entry form. Upon request and where applicable, Seller shall provide Buyer with customs forms, properly executed, as required for drawback claims. Seller shall be responsible for all duties, tariffs, taxes and other costs incurred as a result of being designated importer of record.

23. ORIGIN CERTIFICATION; CONFLICT MINERALS COMPLIANCE Seller shall provide Buyer with a certificate of origin for each and every Product sold hereunder. Further at Buyer’s request, Seller also provide Buyer statements regarding: (a) the applicable origin rule that Seller applied in making the origin certification; and (b) the basis of Seller’s origin certification as either Seller’s own knowledge or Seller’s reasonable reliance on an origin certification made by the manufacturer or other third party.

Seller acknowledges that Buyer is required to comply with Section 1502 of the United States Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (the “Dodd-Frank Act”) which includes requirements related to the use of tin, tantalum, tungsten, and gold (“Conflict Minerals”). Seller shall source and track the chain of custody of all Conflict Minerals contained in any Products in accordance with all applicable laws including the OECD Due Diligence Guidance for Responsible Supply Chains of Minerals from Conflict-Affected and High-Risk Areas. At Buyer’s request, Seller shall: (a) execute and deliver to Buyer declarations in the form of the EICC-GeSI Conflict Minerals Reporting Template as adopted by EICC-GeSI or in any other form that Buyer reasonably requests; and (b) confirm to Buyer that none of Seller’s suppliers of Conflict Minerals are parties or entities that the Office of Foreign Asset Control (“OFAC”) has designated as a Specially Designated National (“SDN”) or that OFAC would deem to be an SDN based on such deemed party’s 50% or more ownership by one or more designated SDNs. Seller shall immediately disclose any changes to the conflict-free minerals status of any Products or any dealings with SDNs or deemed SDNs.
